What is an ASQ?

It is a developmental screening tool completed by parents that helps to see if their children are meeting all their milestones by the time they are 6 years. The questions will take about 20 minutes to answer. Many of the questions involve having fun playing. Like kicking a ball, drawing a picture or building simple puzzles. We will have all the things you need to complete the ASQ, as well as trained facilitators to go over the ASQ when it is completed.
